2025/2026 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Teller County Honorary Deputy Sheriff Association plans to award up to $10,000 in scholarship money (in various amounts) to several applicants who will attend a school in Colorado during the 2025/2026 school year. Qualifying schools include trade schools, four year colleges, community colleges and other institutions of higher learning. The applicant may already be enrolled in one of these schools (i.e., the applicant need not be a high school senior).

Instructions:

Complete this application, in full, including the following required attachments. Use an attachment if there is not enough space to fully provide the requested information.

- Personal letter setting forth reasons you need the scholarship and your plans for the future.
- Latest transcript (can be a copy); this must contain school name, courses, and grades.
- Two letters of personal reference (one letter should preferably be a letter of recommendation from principal, counselor or school department head.)

DEADLINE: April 11, 2025. You may also drop off your application at the Teller County Sheriff's Office.

Scholarships will be paid only to a school in Colorado.
